JANUARY 2015 ... by love, serve one another

This morning we woke up to fresh snowfall at my parents' house in the Upper Peninsula of Michigan. It is beautiful to see the snow covered trees. It reminds me how beautiful and majestic and perfect God's creation is. We are all part of that creation. Do you know how wonderful you are? God thinks you're pretty special. That's why he came to save you from your sins.

Tim

Men's Breakfast: 8:00 AM Saturday, January 3.

Kids Club: Each Friday at 6:00 PM, while the women are in Bible study, Kevin Miller has been meeting with a group of youth. The group is growing and welcome to all.

Revitalization: This meeting will be Monday, Jan. 26, 7:00 PM at church and is open to all.

Work Camps: There are a number of Brethren work camps for ages 11 to 35 this summer. There is a listing of what's available in the Narthex. Registration opens on Jan. 8 and they fill up fast.

Phone list: The office will be updating the phone, address, email list soon, so if there are any changes in your listing, please let Dean or Harlie know by Jan. 9.

Council Meeting dates: We will be having council meetings this coming year on the second Sunday of the second month of each quarter. You might put these dates on your calendar. They are February 8, May 10, August 9, and November 8.

Peace Pole: We dedicated a new peace pole on the west side of the church on December 7. It has the words May Peace Prevail on Earth in four languages on the four sides of the pole. The languages are English, Cherokee, Spanish, and Arabic.

Messenger: It is time to send in subscriptions for Messenger, our denominational monthly magazine (10 issues a year). Messenger has news of churches (our article about heifer project was in recently), denominational happenings, movie reviews, Bible studies and news of members as well as other articles. One year is $14.50, 2 yrs - $27. New subscribers - $7.50 for a year. See Reba by Jan. 7th to subscribe.

Christmas Story: On Dec. 21st, the congregation enjoyed a presentation of the Christmas story by the children of the church.

Manchester University has been named to President's Service Honor Roll for an eighth year. The school based in North Manchester, Ind., "is also on the Interfaith Community Service Honor Roll," said a release. The President's Honor Roll recognizes higher education institutions whose community service efforts achieve meaningful outcomes in their communities. Manchester University has a long reputation for its many service projects and volunteer opportunities, the release notes. These programs include volunteer projects at Camp Mack, American Red Cross blood drives, Hunger and Homelessness Awareness Week, and the Indiana Reading Corps. Last year, Manchester students contributed more than 49,000 hours to their communities, their churches, their country, and nations around the world.
