OCTOBER 2015 ... by love, serve one another

This is the time of year where I wish I could go back to West Virginia or North to the Upper Peninsula of Michigan to take in the fall colors. It makes me wonder, though, if it causes the trees pain to lose their leaves. Or is it just like peeling skin? I've seen plenty of situations where people are unwilling to accept fault or acknowledge that they may have caused someone pain. Their hesitance may be because we tend to dislike change. Yet sometimes for healing to occur we must change. We must accept our role in causing someone pain. We have to shed our leaves in order to experience new birth and healing. And that is beautiful.

Men's Breakfast: 8:00 AM Saturday, Oct. 3.

Book Swap: 10:00 AM-Noon Saturday, Oct. 3.
Thursday, Oct. 15, 6:00-7:30 PM.

Deacon's Meeting: 9:00 AM Sunday, Oct. 11.

Women's Fellowship: 1:00 PM Tuesday, Oct. 13.

Ministry Team: 6:30 PM Tuesday, Oct. 13.

Building & Grounds: 6:30 PM Thursday, Oct. 22.

60+: meets Tuesday, Oct. 27. See Joann for details.

Love INC: Our goal for September is 40 items of chicken noodle soup or noodles.

Thank you: We got a card from the Leon Stong family with this message. "Thank you so much for your gift in memory of Dad. We appreciate this as well as your thoughts and prayers during this time. Dad loved this church and all the congregation meant the world to him."

Equal Exchange: We are going to place another order to the Church of the Brethren coffee project on October 26. These are organic, fair trade items. By eliminating the middle man, we can give farmers a fair price for their produce and still sell them for a good price. For example, 6 boxes with 20 bags each of organic Green tea are $16.50. See Dean for prices on coffee, tea, chocolate, olive oil, etc.

Pancake and Sausage Breakfast: The men are putting on this fundraiser on Saturday, Oct. 24th from 8:00 – 10:00 AM. Put it on your calendar. Pick up some tickets to pass out. Admission is a free will offering so you don't need to collect money. The tickets will spread the word about the breakfast.

CROP Hunger Walk: Sunday, Oct. 4.

Cinnamon roll sales: Thanks to all who made rolls, sold at the fair, transported, set up and took down the trailer, planned, etc. We sold out of cinnamon rolls and several kinds of pop. Our profit for the pioneer festival was almost $900.

Welcome to the Wolfes: We have a new family attending who moved here from Maryland: Andy and Janet Wolfe, who relocated to the Andrews area. They had been attending University Park Church of the Brethren in Maryland. They both grew up in Ohio and Janet's mother still lives in Paulding County, Ohio. They met each other at a department store in Bryan, Ohio where Andy was Janet's boss. Andy's parents are currently living in Georgia. He was looking for work in this area so they could be closer to family and is working at United Technologies as a software developer. They both have sisters in Indianapolis. Janet also has a sister in Defiance, Oh and a brother in Napoleon, Oh. They have two children. Alemnesh is a Freshman at Huntington North and Mulugeta Dean (Getta) is a Sophomore. They were both born in Ethiopia. Their cousins live in Ohio. They are a great addition to our youth group at church. Alemnesh likes playing with the family's cocker spaniel and Getta enjoys running.
